

Cloud Service User Manual

1. Log in

Input this address into browser: <http://www.hdeye.net>, Click V6 login

Note: need to install Active-X when first use.

There are two methods to install it.

1. Install automatically

Use IE browser to log in Cloud service client, it will prompt you install Active-X, as follow

2. Install manually

Click "Download" to install Active-X. Then run it.

after successful installation, it will appear a fold named CloudClient under the directory C:\Program Files.

2. access device

2.1 log in system

2.1.1 Choose language

There are three kinds of language to choose , which are Chinese, English, Spanish.

2.1.2 Ways to log in

Two ways to log in system, by user or by device. it could manage several devices by user, While by device, it only access one device.

Take the operation by user as an example.

Register new account

Click “register”, enter into the registering page to enroll.

Log in system

Use registered account to log in, it will appear the interface shown as below

Preview: view device remotely

Manager: add and manage device

User info: modify user password

Log out: log out system

2.2 device managed

Click“manage”, it will show as below

2.2.1 add device

Click "add",

Device ID	Device Name	Device Type	Login Name	Login password
<input type="text"/>	<input type="text"/>	IPC	<input type="text"/>	<input type="password"/>

Input the info such as device ID, device name, log in name, log in password etc.

2.2.2 edit/delete device

Choose the added device, click  to edit the info, click  to delete the device.

2.3 view device remotely

Click "playview", enter into the "playview" page, choose the device you want on the left , then double click. It will show as below. In this page , you can view by sub stream, playback and configurate remotely.

2.4 user info

Click “user info” , enter into the page below.

You can modify the account password here.

2.5 log out system

Click “log out”, then log out the system.